UBS Institutional/Reserves Funds

June 16, 2017

Dear Shareholder,

We present you with the annual report for the UBS Institutional/Reserves Series of Funds, namely UBS Select Prime Institutional Fund, UBS Select Government Institutional Fund, UBS Select Treasury Institutional Fund, UBS Prime Reserves Fund and UBS Tax-Free Reserves Fund (previously, UBS Select Tax Free Institutional Fund) (the “Funds”) for the 12 months (or since commencement period for UBS Select Government Institutional Fund) ended April 30, 2017 (the “reporting period”).

Performance

In December 2016, the US Federal Reserve Board raised the federal funds rate from a range between 0.25% and 0.50% to a range between 0.50% and 0.75%. In March 2017, rates were raised to a range between 0.75% and 1.00%. The federal funds rate or the “fed funds rate,” is the rate US banks charge one another for funds they borrow on an overnight basis. (For more details on the Fed’s actions, see below.) While the yields on a wide range of short-term investments moved higher over the period, yields still remained low by historical comparison. As a result, the Funds’ yields remained low during the reporting period.

The seven-day current yields for the Funds (after fee waivers/expense reimbursements) were as follows:

- UBS Select Prime Institutional Fund: 1.01% as of April 30, 2017, versus 0.38% on April 30, 2016.
- UBS Select Government Institutional Fund: 0.62% as of April 30, 2017.
- UBS Select Treasury Institutional Fund: 0.62% as of April 30, 2017, versus 0.15% on April 30, 2016.
- UBS Prime Reserves Fund: 0.89% as of April 30, 2017, versus 0.38% on April 30, 2016.
- UBS Tax-Free Reserves Fund (previously UBS Select Tax-Free Institutional Fund): 0.71% as of April 30, 2017, versus 0.15% on April 30, 2016.

For detailed information on the Funds’ performance, refer to “Yields and characteristics at a glance” on pages 7 and 8.

An interview with the Portfolio Managers

Q. How would you describe the economic environment during the reporting period?

A. The US economy faced a number of headwinds but overcame these challenges and continued to expand during the reporting period. That being said, the overall pace of growth was fairly tepid. The US Commerce Department reported that gross domestic product (“GDP”) grew at a 1.4% seasonally adjusted annualized rate during the second quarter of 2016. GDP growth then improved to a 3.5% rate during the third quarter of 2016—the strongest reading since the third quarter of 2014. GDP growth then moderated to a 2.1% rate during the fourth quarter. Finally, first quarter 2017 GDP grew at a 1.2% rate based on the US Commerce Department’s second estimate.<sup>1</sup>

Q. How did the Fed react to the economic environment?

A. After taking its first step toward normalizing monetary policy in late 2015, the US Federal Reserve Board (“Fed”) kept the fed funds rate unchanged until December 2016, when it increased rates 0.25% to a range between 0.50% and 0.75%. After keeping rates unchanged at its first meeting in 2017, the Fed again raised rates 0.25%, to a range between 0.75% and 1.00%, at its meeting that concluded on March 15, 2017. In its statement following the March meeting the Fed said, “The Committee expects that economic conditions will evolve in a manner that will warrant gradual increases in the federal funds rate; the federal funds rate is likely to remain, for some time, below levels that are expected to prevail in the longer run. However, the actual path of the federal funds rate will depend on the economic outlook as informed by incoming data.” At its meeting in June 2017, after the end of the reporting period, the Fed raised rates 0.25% to a range between 1.00% and 1.25%.

Q. Given that the Funds are “feeder funds,” how were the portfolios in which they invest managed during the reporting period?

- A. Each fund is a “feeder fund,” investing all of its assets in “Master Funds”—the Prime Master Fund, the Government Master Fund, the Treasury Master Fund, the Prime CNAV Master Fund and the Tax-Free Master Fund, respectively. As always, quality and liquidity remained paramount in our management process for the Master Funds.
- For the Prime Master Fund in which UBS Select Prime Institutional Fund invests, we tactically adjusted its weighted average maturity (WAM)—which is the weighted average maturity of the securities in the portfolio—throughout the 12-month review period. When the reporting period began, the Master Fund had a WAM of 42 days. By the end of the period, the Master Fund’s WAM was 25 days.

At the issuer level, we maintained a high level of diversification, investing in smaller positions with the goal of reducing risk and keeping the Master Fund highly liquid. To that end, we typically purchased up to 3% in single nongovernment issuers throughout the reporting period. (The Master Fund is generally able to hold up to 5% in any one issuer, subject to certain exceptions.)

At the security level, we increased the Master Fund’s exposures to repurchase agreements and commercial paper, while modestly adding to its position in time deposits. (Repurchase agreements are transactions that require the seller of a security to buy it back at a predetermined time and price, or upon demand.) Conversely, we decreased its exposure to certificates of deposit. Finally, we eliminated its allocations to US government and agency obligations, other short-term corporate obligations and non-US government obligations.

<sup>1</sup> Based on the Commerce Department’s second estimate announced on May 26, 2017, after the reporting period had ended.

UBS Institutional/Reserves Funds

- The inception date for the Government Master Fund in which UBS Select Government Institutional Fund invests was June 24, 2016. (UBS Select Government Institutional Fund itself commenced operations on July 26, 2016.) We tactically adjusted its WAM, and at the end of the reporting period, the Master Fund's WAM was 56 days. At the security level, the Master Fund's largest exposure was in direct government and agency obligations, followed by repurchase agreements backed by government securities.
- The WAM for the Treasury Master Fund in which UBS Select Treasury Institutional Fund invests was 59 days when the reporting period began. Over the review period, the WAM was adjusted, and at period-end on April 30, 2017, it was 49 days. At the security level, we increased the Master Fund's exposure to repurchase agreements backed by government securities and reduced its exposure to direct US government obligations.
- The WAM for the Prime CNAV Master Fund in which UBS Prime Reserves Fund invests was 31 days when the reporting period began. We tactically adjusted its WAM, and at the end of the reporting period, the Master Fund's WAM was 26 days. Over the review period, we increased the Master Fund's allocation to repurchase agreements and modestly added to its exposures to time deposits and certificates of deposit. Conversely, we meaningfully reduced its allocation to commercial paper and slightly pared its exposure to US government and agency obligations.
- The WAM for the Tax-Free Master Fund in which UBS Tax-Free Reserves Fund invests was six days when the reporting period began. We tactically adjusted the Master Fund's WAM based on market conditions and seasonality factors within the tax-exempt market. At the end of the reporting period, its WAM was also six days. Over the review period, we significantly increased the Master Fund's allocation to municipal bonds and notes, and significantly reduced its exposure to tax-exempt commercial paper.

Q. What factors do you believe will affect the Funds over the coming months?

A. We believe the US economy has enough momentum to continue expanding, albeit at a relatively modest pace. In our view, inflation will remain fairly well contained. In such an environment, we feel the Fed will be true to its word and take a slow and deliberate pace in terms of raising interest rates. We anticipate continuing to manage the Funds focusing on risk and liquidity.

Understanding your Fund's expenses<sup>1</sup> (unaudited)

As a shareholder of a Fund, you incur ongoing costs, including management fees and other Fund expenses. These examples are intended to help you understand your ongoing costs (in dollars) of investing in a Fund and to compare these costs with the ongoing costs of investing in other mutual funds. Since each Fund is a "feeder fund" that invests in a corresponding "master fund," the expense information below reflects the combined effect of the two levels of expenses and not just those imposed directly at the feeder fund level.

The examples below are based on an investment of $1,000 invested at the beginning of the period and held for the entire period, November 1, 2016 to April 30, 2017.

Actual expenses

The first line in the table below for each Fund provides information about actual account values and actual expenses. You may use the information in this line, together with the amount you invested, to estimate the expenses that you paid over a period. Simply divide your account value by $1,000 (for example, an $8,600 account value divided by $1,000 = 8.6), then multiply the result by the number in the first line under the heading entitled "Expenses paid during period" to estimate the expenses you paid on your account during this period.

Hypothetical example for comparison purposes

The second line in the table below for each Fund provides information about hypothetical account values and hypothetical expenses based on the Fund's actual expense ratio and an assumed rate of return of 5% per year before expenses, which is not the Fund's actual return. The hypothetical account values and expenses may not be used to estimate your actual ending account balance or expenses you paid for the period. You may use this information to compare the ongoing costs of investing in the Fund and other funds. To do so, compare these 5% hypothetical examples with the 5% hypothetical examples that appear in the shareholder reports of other funds.

Please note that the expenses shown in the table are meant to highlight your ongoing costs. Therefore, the second line in the table for each Fund is useful in comparing ongoing costs only, and will not help you determine the relative total costs of owning different funds, if those other funds impose transactional costs—for example, exchange fees. In addition, if those transactional costs were included, your costs for those other funds would have been higher.

<sup>1</sup> The expenses for the Funds reflect the expenses of the corresponding master funds in which they invest in addition to their own direct expenses.

<sup>2</sup> "Actual—Ending account value" may or may not be reflective of a shareholder's actual investment experience during periods of very low interest rates. While the Fund declares dividends daily and pays them monthly, the amounts are rounded to the nearest $0.01 on a daily basis with respect to each investor's account. As a result, investors whose Fund account balances earn daily dividends that total less than one half a cent on any given day will not accrue any dividends on that day.

<sup>3</sup> Expenses are equal to the Fund's annualized net expense ratio, multiplied by the average account value over the period, multiplied by 181 divided by 365 (to reflect the one-half year period).

Notes to financial statements

Organization and significant accounting policies

UBS Select Prime Institutional Fund (“Prime Institutional Fund”), UBS Select Government Institutional Fund (“Government Institutional Fund”), UBS Select Treasury Institutional Fund (“Treasury Institutional Fund”), UBS Prime Reserves Fund (“Prime Reserves Fund”), and UBS Tax-Free Reserves Fund (“Tax-Free Reserves Fund”) (formerly UBS Select Tax-Free Institutional Fund) (each a “Fund”, collectively, the “Funds”) are each registered with the US Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (“1940 Act”), as a diversified series of UBS Money Series (the “Trust”), an open-end management investment company organized as a Delaware statutory trust on April 29, 1998. The Trust is a series mutual fund with twenty series. The financial statements for the other series of the Trust are not included herein.

Prime Institutional Fund, Government Institutional Fund, Treasury Institutional Fund, Prime Reserves Fund, and Tax-Free Reserves Fund are “feeder funds” that invest substantially all of their assets in “master funds”—Prime Master Fund, Government Master Fund, Treasury Master Fund, Prime CNAV Master Fund, and Tax-Free Master Fund, respectively (each a “Master Fund”, collectively, the “Master Funds” and each a diversified series of Master Trust, an open-end investment company registered with the SEC under the 1940 Act). The feeder funds and their respective Master Funds have the same investment objectives.

Prior to August 28, 2007, Prime Institutional Fund and Treasury Institutional Fund invested in securities directly. Effective August 28, 2007, Prime Institutional Fund and Treasury Institutional Fund invest substantially all of their assets in Prime Master Fund and Treasury Master Fund, respectively. Tax-Free Reserves Fund commenced operations on August 28, 2007. Prime Reserves fund commenced operations on January 19, 2016, and Government Institutional Fund commenced operations on July 26, 2016.

UBS Asset Management (Americas) Inc. (“UBS AM”) is the investment advisor and administrator for the Master Funds and the administrator for the feeder funds. UBS AM is an indirect wholly owned subsidiary of UBS Group AG. UBS Group AG is an internationally diversified organization with headquarters in Zurich, Switzerland. UBS Group AG operates in many areas of the financial services industry.

The performance of each Fund is directly affected by the performance of the corresponding Master Fund. The value of such investment reflects each Fund’s proportionate interest in the net assets of its corresponding Master Fund (73.05% for Prime Institutional Fund, 6.36% for Government Institutional Fund, 23.50% for Treasury Institutional Fund, 55.63% for Prime Reserves Fund, and 59.14% for Tax-Free Reserves Fund at April 30, 2017).

All of the net investment income and realized and unrealized gains and losses from investment activities of each Master Fund are allocated pro rata, based on respective ownership interests, among the corresponding Fund and other investors in the Master Fund (e.g., other feeder funds) at the time of such determination. The financial statements of the Master Funds, including the Portfolio of investments, are included elsewhere in this report and should be read in connection with the Funds’ financial statements. The Trust accounts separately for the assets, liabilities and operations of each series. Expenses directly attributable to each series are charged to that series’ operations; expenses which are applicable to all series are allocated among them on a pro rata basis.

In the normal course of business, the Funds may enter into contracts that contain a variety of representations that provide indemnification for certain liabilities. The Funds’ maximum exposure under these arrangements is unknown, as this would involve future claims that may be made against the Funds that have not yet occurred. However, the Funds have not had any prior claims or losses pursuant to these contracts and expect the risk of loss to be remote.

The Financial Accounting Standards Board (“FASB”) Accounting Standards Codification (“ASC”) is the exclusive reference of authoritative US generally accepted accounting principles (“US GAAP”) recognized by the FASB to be applied by nongovernmental entities. Rules and interpretive releases of the SEC under authority of federal laws are also sources of authoritative US GAAP for SEC registrants. The Funds' financial statements are prepared in accordance with US GAAP, which may require the use of management estimates and assumptions. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Notes to financial statements

In August 2014, the FASB issued Accounting Standard Update No. 2014-15, Presentation of Financial Statements—Going Concern (Subtopic 205-40): "Disclosure of Uncertainties about an Entity's Ability to Continue as a Going Concern" ("ASU 2014-15"). The update provides guidance about management's responsibility to evaluate whether there is substantial doubt about the entity's ability to continue as a going concern and to provide related footnote disclosure. Management has evaluated relevant conditions and events, which are known and reasonably knowable, and has determined that there are no conditions and events that raise substantial doubt about the Fund's ability to continue as a going concern.

The following is a summary of significant accounting policies:

Valuation of investments—Each Fund records its investment in its corresponding Master Fund at fair value. Securities held by the Master Funds are valued as indicated in the Master Funds' Notes to financial statements, which are included elsewhere in this report.

Floating net asset value per share fund—Until October 11, 2016, Prime Institutional Fund sought to maintain a stable price of $1.00 per share. Effective October 11, 2016, consistent with amendments to Rule 2a-7 under the 1940 Act, Prime Institutional Fund calculates its net asset value to four decimals (e.g., $1.0000) using market-based pricing and expects that its share price will fluctuate.

Constant net asset value per share funds—Government Institutional Fund, Treasury Institutional Fund, Prime Reserves Fund, and Tax-Free Reserves Fund (collectively the "Constant NAV Funds") attempt to maintain a stable net asset value of $1.00 per share. There is no assurance, however, that the Constant NAV Funds will be able to maintain a stable net asset value of $1.00 per share. The Constant NAV Funds have adopted certain investment, portfolio valuation and dividend/distribution policies in an attempt to enable each to do so. Government Institutional Fund and Treasury Institutional Fund have adopted a policy to operate as "government money market funds". Under Rule 2a-7 under the 1940 Act, a "government money market fund" invests 99.5% or more of its total assets in cash, government securities, and/or repurchase agreements that are collateralized fully (i.e., collateralized by cash and/or government securities). As "government money market funds", Government Institutional Fund and Treasury Institutional Fund are permitted to seek to maintain a stable price per share. Effective October 14, 2016, Prime Reserves Fund and Tax-Free Reserves Fund became "retail money market funds". Under Rule 2a-7 under the 1940 Act, a "retail money market fund" is a money market fund that has policies and procedures reasonably designed to limit all beneficial owners of the fund to natural persons. As "retail money market funds", Prime Reserves Fund and Tax-Free Reserves Fund are permitted to seek to maintain a stable price per share.

Liquidity fee and/or redemption gates—Effective October 14, 2016, consistent with Rule 2a-7 under the 1940 Act, Prime Institutional Fund, Prime Reserves Fund and Tax-Free Reserves Fund may be subject to the possible imposition of a liquidity fee and/or temporary redemption gate. Prime Master Fund, Prime CNAV Master Fund and Tax-Free Master Fund may impose a fee upon the sale of your shares of each related feeder fund or may temporarily suspend your ability to sell shares of each related feeder fund if Prime Master Fund's liquidity, Prime CNAV Master Fund's liquidity and/or Tax-Free Master Fund's liquidity, respectively, falls below required minimums because of market conditions or other factors. For the period ended April 30, 2017, Prime Institutional Fund, Prime Reserves Fund and Tax-Free Reserves Fund were not subject to any liquidity fees and/or redemption gates.

By operating as "government money market funds", Government Institutional Fund and Treasury Institutional Fund are exempt from requirements that permit the imposition of a liquidity fee and/or temporary redemption gates. While the Funds' Board of Trustees (the "Board") may elect to subject Government Institutional Fund and Treasury Institutional Fund to liquidity fee and gate requirements in the future, the Board has not elected to do so at this time.

Notes to financial statements

Dividends and distributions—Dividends and distributions to shareholders are recorded on the ex-dividend date. The amount of dividends and distributions is determined in accordance with federal income tax regulations, which may differ from US GAAP. These “book/tax” differences are either considered temporary or permanent in nature. To the extent these differences are permanent in nature, such amounts are reclassified within the capital accounts based on their federal tax-basis treatment; temporary differences do not require reclassification.

Concentration of risk—The ability of the issuers of the debt securities held by the Master Funds to meet their obligations may be affected by economic and political developments particular to a specific industry, country, state or region.

Administrator

UBS AM serves as administrator to each Fund pursuant to an Administration Agreement approved by the Trust’s board. In accordance with the Administration Agreement, each Fund pays UBS AM an administration fee, which is accrued daily and paid monthly, at the below annual rate as a percentage of each Fund’s average daily net assets:

Fund	Administration fee
Prime Institutional Fund	0.08%
Government Institutional Fund	0.08%
Treasury Institutional Fund	0.08%
Prime Reserves Fund	0.08%
Tax-Free Reserves Fund	0.08%

At April 30, 2017, each Fund owed UBS AM for administrative services as follows:

Fund	Amounts owed to UBS AM
Prime Institutional Fund	$152,446
Government Institutional Fund	76,756
Treasury Institutional Fund	302,065
Prime Reserves Fund	49,056
Tax-Free Reserves Fund	92,118

In exchange for these fees, UBS AM has agreed to bear all of the Funds’ expenses other than interest, taxes, extraordinary costs and the cost of securities purchased and sold by the Funds, including any transaction costs. Although UBS AM is not obligated to pay the fees and expenses of the Funds’ independent trustees, it is contractually obligated to reduce its fee in an amount equal to those fees and expenses. UBS AM estimates that these fees and expenses will be less than 0.01% of each Fund’s average daily net assets. At April 30, 2017, UBS AM was obligated to reduce its administration fees, otherwise receivable by UBS AM, for independent trustees’ fees as follows:

Fund
Prime Institutional Fund	$ 8,421
Government Institutional Fund	6,750
Treasury Institutional Fund	13,628
Prime Reserves Fund	5,886
Tax-Free Reserves Fund	7,021

Federal tax status

Each Fund intends to distribute substantially all of its income and to comply with the other requirements of the Internal Revenue Code applicable to regulated investment companies. Accordingly, no provision for federal income taxes is required. In addition, by distributing during each calendar year substantially all of their net investment income, net realized capital gains and certain other amounts, if any, each Fund intends not to be subject to a federal excise tax.

The tax character of distributions paid to shareholders by Prime Institutional Fund, Prime Reserves Fund and Treasury Institutional Fund during the fiscal years ended April 30, 2017 and April 30, 2016, was ordinary income. The tax character of distributions paid to shareholders by Government Institutional Fund during the fiscal period ended April 30, 2017, was ordinary income. The tax character of distributions paid to shareholders by Tax-Free Reserves Fund during the fiscal years ended April 30, 2017 and April 30, 2016, was 99.74% and 65.92% tax-exempt income, 0.19% and 9.64% ordinary income, and 0.06% and 24.44% long-term capital gain, respectively.

Notes to financial statements

Under the Regulated Investment Company Modernization Act of 2010 (the "Act"), net capital losses recognized by the Funds after December 22, 2010, may be carried forward indefinitely, and retain their character as short-term and/or long-term losses. The Act requires that post-enactment net capital losses be used before pre-enactment net capital losses. These carryforwards are available as a reduction, to the extent provided in the regulations, of future realized capital gains. To the extent that such losses are used to offset future net realized capital gains, it is probable these gains will not be distributed. As of April 30, 2017, none of the Funds had capital loss carryforwards.

ASC 740-10 "Income Taxes—Overall" sets forth a minimum threshold for financial statement recognition of the benefit of a tax position taken or expected to be taken. The Funds have conducted an analysis and concluded as of April 30, 2017, that there are no significant uncertain tax positions taken or expected to be taken that would require recognition in the financial statements. The Funds recognize interest and penalties, if any, related to uncertain tax positions as income tax expense in the Statement of operations. During the year ended April 30, 2017, the Funds did not incur any interest or penalties.

Each of the tax years in the four year period ended April 30, 2017, and since inception for the Government Institutional Fund and Prime Reserves Fund, remain subject to examination by the Internal Revenue Service and state taxing authorities.

Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements and financial highlights are free of material misstatement. We were not engaged to perform an audit of the Funds' internal control over financial reporting. Our audits included consideration of internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Funds' internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements and financial highlights, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, and evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements and financial highlights referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of UBS Select Prime Institutional Fund, UBS Select Government Institutional Fund, UBS Select Treasury Institutional Fund, UBS Prime Reserves Fund and UBS Tax-Free Reserves Fund at April 30, 2017, the results of their operations, the changes in their net assets and the financial highlights for each of the periods indicated therein, in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles.

Understanding a Master Fund's expenses (unaudited)

(Note: The expense information provided in this section is relevant for direct investors in the Master Funds. Investors in the related "feeder funds" should instead focus on separate expense examples relevant to the particular feeder funds; the expense examples for the feeder funds will reflect their proportionate share of the corresponding Master Funds' expenses.)

As an owner of a Master Fund, an investor such as a feeder fund incurs ongoing costs, including management fees and other Master Fund expenses. These examples are intended to help you understand a Master Fund investor's ongoing costs (in dollars) of investing in a Master Fund and to compare these costs with the ongoing costs of investing in other mutual funds.

The examples below are based on an investment of $1,000 invested at the beginning of the period and held for the entire period, November 1, 2016 to April 30, 2017.

Actual expenses

The first line in the table below for each Master Fund provides information about actual account values and actual expenses. You may use the information in this line, together with the amount you invested, to estimate the expenses that you paid over a period. Simply divide your account value by $1,000 (for example, an $8,600 account value divided by $1,000 = 8.6), then multiply the result by the number in the first line under the heading entitled "Expenses paid during period" to estimate the expenses you paid on your account during this period.

Hypothetical example for comparison purposes

The second line in the table below for each Master Fund provides information about hypothetical account values and hypothetical expenses based on the Master Fund's actual expense ratio and an assumed rate of return of 5% per year before expenses, which is not the Master Fund's actual return. The hypothetical account values and expenses may not be used to estimate your actual ending account balance or expenses you paid for the period. You may use this information to compare the ongoing costs of investing in the Master Fund and other funds. To do so, compare these 5% hypothetical examples with the 5% hypothetical examples that appear in the shareholder reports of other funds.

Please note that the expenses shown in the table are meant to highlight your ongoing costs. Therefore, the second line in the table for each Master Fund is useful in comparing ongoing costs only, and will not help you determine the relative total costs of owning different funds, if those other funds impose transactional costs—for example, exchange fees. In addition, if those transactional costs were included, your costs for those other funds would have been higher.

Notes to financial statements

Organization and significant accounting policies

Prime Master Fund, Government Master Fund, Treasury Master Fund, Prime CNAV Master Fund, and Tax-Free Master Fund (each a “Master Fund”, collectively, the “Master Funds”) are each registered with the US Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (“1940 Act”), as a diversified series of Master Trust, an open-end management investment company organized as a Delaware statutory trust on June 12, 2007.

Prime Master Fund, Treasury Master Fund, and Tax-Free Master Fund commenced operations on August 28, 2007. Prime CNAV Master Fund commenced operations on January 19, 2016 and Government Master Fund commenced operations on June 24, 2016.

UBS Asset Management (Americas) Inc. (“UBS AM”) is the investment advisor and administrator for the Master Funds. UBS AM is an indirect wholly owned subsidiary of UBS Group AG. UBS Group AG is an internationally diversified organization with headquarters in Zurich, Switzerland. UBS Group AG operates in many areas of the financial services industry.

Master Trust accounts separately for the assets, liabilities and operations of each series. Expenses directly attributable to each series are charged to that series’ operations; expenses which are applicable to all series are allocated among them on a pro rata basis.

In the normal course of business, the Master Funds may enter into contracts that contain a variety of representations that provide indemnification for certain liabilities. The Master Funds’ maximum exposure under these arrangements is unknown, as this would involve future claims that may be made against the Master Funds that have not yet occurred. However, the Master Funds have not had any prior claims or losses pursuant to these contracts and expect the risk of loss to be remote.

The Financial Accounting Standards Board (“FASB”) Accounting Standards Codification (“ASC”) is the exclusive reference of authoritative US generally accepted accounting principles (“US GAAP”) recognized by the FASB to be applied by nongovernmental entities. Rules and interpretive releases of the SEC under authority of federal laws are also sources of authoritative US GAAP for SEC registrants. The Master Funds’ financial statements are prepared in accordance with US GAAP, which may require the use of management estimates and assumptions. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

In August 2014, the FASB issued Accounting Standard Update No. 2014-15, Presentation of Financial Statements—Going Concern (Subtopic 205-40): “Disclosure of Uncertainties about an Entity’s Ability to Continue as a Going Concern” (“ASU 2014-15”). The update provides guidance about management’s responsibility to evaluate whether there is substantial doubt about the entity’s ability to continue as a going concern and to provide related footnote disclosure. Management has evaluated relevant conditions and events, which are known and reasonably knowable, and has determined that there are no conditions and events that raise substantial doubt about the Fund’s ability to continue as a going concern.

The following is a summary of significant accounting policies:

Valuation of investments

Until October 11, 2016, Prime Master Fund valued its investments at amortized cost. Effective October 11, 2016, consistent with amendments to Rule 2a-7 under the 1940 Act, the net asset value of Prime Master Fund is calculated using market-based values, and the price of its beneficial interests fluctuate.

Master Trust

Notes to financial statements

Under Rule 2a-7 under the 1940 Act, Government Master Fund, Treasury Master Fund, Prime CNAV Master Fund, and Tax-Free Master Fund have adopted certain policies that enable them to use the amortized cost method of valuation. Government Master Fund and Treasury Master Fund have adopted a policy to operate as “government money market funds”. Under Rule 2a-7 under the 1940 Act, a “government money market fund” invests 99.5% or more of its total assets in cash, government securities, and/or repurchase agreements that are collateralized fully (i.e., collateralized by cash and/or government securities). Effective October 14, 2016, Prime CNAV Master Fund and Tax-Free Master Fund became “retail money market funds”. Under Rule 2a-7 under the 1940 Act, a “retail money market fund” is a money market fund that has policies and procedures reasonably designed to limit all beneficial owners of the fund to natural persons. As “government money market funds” and as “retail money market funds”, Government Master Fund, Treasury Master Fund, Prime CNAV Master Fund, and Tax-Free Master Fund value their investments at amortized cost unless the Master Trust’s Board of Trustees (the “Board”) determines that this does not represent fair value. Periodic review and monitoring of the valuation of securities held by Government Master Fund, Treasury Master Fund, Prime CNAV Master Fund, and Tax-Free Master Fund is performed in an effort to ensure that amortized cost approximates market value.

The Board has delegated to the Equities, Fixed Income, and Multi-Asset Valuation Committee (“VC”) the responsibility for making fair value determinations with respect to the Master Funds’ portfolio investments. The types of investments for which such fair value pricing may be necessary include, but are not limited to: investments of an issuer that has entered into a restructuring; fixed-income investments that have gone into default and for which there is no current market value quotation; Section 4(a)(2) commercial paper; investments that are restricted as to transfer or resale; illiquid investments; and investments for which the prices or values available do not, in the judgment of the VC, represent current market value. The need to fair value a Master Fund’s portfolio investments may also result from low trading volume in foreign markets or thinly traded investments. Various factors may be reviewed in order to make a good faith determination of an investment’s fair value. These factors include, but are not limited to, fundamental analytical data relating to the investment; the nature and duration of restrictions on disposition of the investment; and the evaluation of forces which influence the market in which the investments are purchased and sold.

Each Master Fund’s portfolio holdings may also consist of shares of other investment companies in which the Master Fund invests. The value of each such open-end investment company will generally be its net asset value at the time a Master Fund’s beneficial interests are priced. Pursuant to each Master Fund’s use of the practical expedient within ASC Topic 820, investments in non-registered investment companies and/or investments in investment companies without publicly published prices are also valued at the daily net asset value. Each investment company generally values investments in a manner as described in that investment company’s prospectus or similar documents.

US GAAP requires disclosure regarding the various inputs that are used in determining the value of each of the Master Fund’s investments. These inputs are summarized into the three broad levels listed below:

Level 1—Unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical investments.

Level 2—Other significant observable inputs, including but not limited to, quoted prices for similar investments, interest rates, prepayment speeds and credit risks.

Level 3—Unobservable inputs inclusive of each Master Fund’s own assumptions in determining the fair value of investments.

A fair value hierarchy has been included near the end of each Master Fund’s Portfolio of investments.

Liquidity fee and/or redemption gates—Effective October 14, 2016, consistent with amendments to Rule 2a-7 under the 1940 Act, the Board is permitted to impose a liquidity fee on redemptions from each of Prime Master Fund, Prime CNAV Master Fund and Tax-Free Master Fund or a redemption gate to temporarily restrict redemptions from those Master Funds in the event that any of Prime Master Fund's liquidity, Prime CNAV Master Fund's liquidity and/or Tax-Free Master Fund's liquidity, respectively, falls below required minimums because of market conditions or other factors. On or after October 14, 2016, if Prime Master Fund's, Prime CNAV Master Fund's or Tax-Free Master Fund's weekly liquid assets fall below 30% of the Fund's total assets, the board is permitted, but not required, to: (i) impose a liquidity fee of no more than 2% of the amount redeemed; and/or (ii) impose a redemption gate to temporarily suspend the right of redemption. On or after October 14, 2016, if any of Prime Master Fund's, Prime CNAV Master Fund's or Tax-Free Master Fund's weekly liquid assets falls below 10% of the Fund's total assets, the relevant Fund must impose, generally as of the beginning of the next business day, a liquidity fee of 1% of the amount redeemed unless the Board determines that such a fee would not be in the best interest of the Fund or determines that a lower or higher fee (subject to the 2% limit) would be in the best interest of the Fund. Liquidity fees would reduce the amount an interestholder receives upon redemption of its beneficial interests. Each of Prime Master Fund, Prime CNAV Master Fund, and Tax-Free Master Fund retains the liquidity fees for the benefit of remaining interest holders. For the period ended April 30, 2017, the Board of Prime Master Fund, Prime CNAV Master Fund and Tax-Free Master Fund did not impose any liquidity fees and/or redemption gates.

Master Trust

Notes to financial statements

By operating as "government money market funds", Government Master Fund and Treasury Master Fund are exempt from requirements that permit the imposition of a liquidity fee and/or temporary redemption gates. While the Board may elect to subject Government Master Fund and Treasury Master Fund to liquidity fee and gate requirements in the future, the Board has not elected to do so at this time.

Repurchase agreements—The Master Funds may purchase securities or other obligations from a bank or securities dealer (or its affiliate), subject to the seller's agreement to repurchase them at an agreed upon date (or upon demand) and price. The Master Funds maintain custody of the underlying obligations prior to their repurchase, either through their regular custodian or through a special "tri-party" custodian or sub-custodian that maintains a separate account for both the Master Funds and their counterparty. The underlying collateral is valued daily in an effort to ensure that the value, including accrued interest, is at least equal to the repurchase price.

Repurchase agreements carry certain risks not associated with direct investments in securities, including a possible decline in the market value of the underlying obligations. If their value becomes less than the repurchase price, plus any agreed-upon additional amount, the counterparty must provide additional collateral so that the collateral is at least equal to the repurchase price plus any agreed-upon additional amount. The difference between the total amount to be received upon repurchase of the obligations and the price that was paid by a fund upon acquisition is accrued as interest and included in its net investment income. In the event of default of the obligation to repurchase, the Master Funds generally have the right to liquidate the collateral and apply the proceeds in satisfaction of the obligation. Repurchase agreements involving obligations other than US government securities (such as commercial paper, corporate bonds, equities and mortgage loans) may be subject to special risks and may not have the benefit of certain protections in the event of counterparty insolvency. Moreover, repurchase agreements secured by obligations that are not eligible for direct investment under Rule 2a-7 under the 1940 Act or a fund's investment strategies and limitations may require the Master Fund to promptly dispose of such collateral if the seller or guarantor becomes insolvent. If the seller (or seller's guarantor, if any) becomes insolvent, the Master Funds may suffer delays, costs and possible losses in connection with the disposition or retention of the collateral. Under certain circumstances, in the event of default or bankruptcy by the other party to the agreement, realization and/or retention of the collateral may be subject to legal proceedings. Each Master Fund intends to enter into repurchase agreements only in transactions with counterparties believed by UBS AM to present minimal credit risk.

The Master Funds may participate in joint repurchase agreement transactions with other funds managed or advised by UBS AM in accordance with an exemptive order granted by the SEC pursuant to Section 17(d) of the 1940 Act and Rule 17d-1 thereunder. Prime Master Fund, Government Master Fund, Treasury Master Fund, and Prime CNAV Master Fund may engage in repurchase agreements as part of normal investing strategies; Tax-Free Master Fund generally would only engage in repurchase agreement transactions as temporary or defensive investments.

Notes to financial statements

Under certain circumstances, a Master Fund may engage in a repurchase agreement transaction with a yield of zero in order to invest cash amounts remaining in its portfolio at the end of the day in order to avoid having the Master Fund potentially exposed to a fee for uninvested cash held in a business account at a bank.

Investment transactions and investment income—Investment transactions are recorded on the trade date. Realized gains and losses from investment transactions are calculated using the identified cost method. Interest income is recorded on an accrual basis. Discounts are accreted and premiums are amortized as adjustments to interest income and the identified cost of investments.

Concentration of risk—The ability of the issuers of the debt securities held by the Master Funds to meet their obligations may be affected by economic and political developments particular to a specific industry, country, state or region.

Investment advisor and administrator

UBS AM serves as the investment advisor and administrator to each Master Fund pursuant to an investment advisory and administration contract (“Management Contract”) approved by the Board. In accordance with the Management Contract, each Master Fund pays UBS AM an investment advisory and administration fee (“management fee”), which is accrued daily and paid monthly, at the below annual rates, as a percentage of each Master Fund’s average daily net assets:

Average daily net assets	Annual rate
Up to $30 billion	0.1000%
In excess of $30 billion up to $40 billion	0.0975
In excess of $40 billion up to $50 billion	0.0950
In excess of $50 billion up to $60 billion	0.0925
Over $60 billion	0.0900

At April 30, 2017, each Master Fund owed UBS AM for investment advisory and administration services as follows:

Fund	Amounts owed to UBS AM
Prime Master Fund	$ 263,814
Government Master Fund	1,506,592
Treasury Master Fund	1,524,138
Prime CNAV Master Fund	109,986
Tax-Free Master Fund	192,510

In exchange for these fees, UBS AM has agreed to bear all of the Master Funds’ expenses other than taxes, extraordinary costs and the cost of securities purchased and sold by the Master Funds, including any transaction costs. Although UBS AM is not obligated to pay the fees and expenses of the Master Funds’ independent trustees, it is contractually obligated to reduce its management fee in an amount equal to those fees and expenses. UBS AM estimates that these fees and expenses will be 0.01% or less of each Master Fund’s average daily net assets. At April 30, 2017, UBS AM was obligated to reduce its management fees, otherwise receivable by UBS AM, for independent trustees’ fees and expenses as follows:

Fund
Prime Master Fund	$ 9,516
Government Master Fund	37,697
Treasury Master Fund	40,997
Prime CNAV Master Fund	6,834
Tax-Free Master Fund	8,540

Additional information regarding compensation to affiliate of a board member

Professor Meyer Feldberg serves as a senior advisor to Morgan Stanley, a financial services firm with which the Master Funds may conduct transactions, resulting in him being an interested trustee of the Master Funds. The Master Funds have been informed that Professor Feldberg's role at Morgan Stanley does not involve matters directly affecting any UBS funds. Portfolio transactions are executed through Morgan Stanley based on that firm's ability to provide best execution of the transactions.

During the year ended April 30, 2017, the Master Funds purchased and sold certain securities (e.g., fixed income securities) in principal trades with Morgan Stanley, having aggregate values as follows:

Prime Master Fund	$ —
Government Master Fund	129,791,264
Treasury Master Fund	—
Prime CNAV Master Fund	—
Tax-Free Master Fund	483,155,000

Morgan Stanley received compensation in connection with these trades, which may have been in the form of a "mark-up" or "mark-down" of the price of the securities, a fee from the issuer for maintaining a commercial paper program, or some other form of compensation. Although the precise amount of this compensation is not generally known by the Master Funds' investment manager, it is believed that under normal circumstances it represents a small portion of the total value of the transactions.

Notes to financial statements

Federal tax status

Each Master Fund is considered a non-publicly traded partnership for federal income tax purposes under the Internal Revenue Code; therefore, no federal tax provision is necessary. As such, each investor in a Master Fund is treated as owning its proportionate share of the net assets, income, expenses, and realized and unrealized gains and losses of the Master Fund. UBS AM intends that each Master Fund's assets, income and distributions will be managed in such a way that an investor in a Master Fund will be able to continue to qualify as a regulated investment company by investing its net assets through the Master Fund.

ASC 740-10 "Income Taxes—Overall" sets forth a minimum threshold for financial statement recognition of the benefit of a tax position taken or expected to be taken. The Funds have conducted an analysis and concluded, as of April 30, 2017, that there are no significant uncertain tax positions taken or expected to be taken that would require recognition in the financial statements. The Master Funds recognize interest and penalties, if any, related to uncertain tax positions as income tax expense in the Statement of operations. During the year ended April 30, 2017, the Funds did not incur any interest or penalties.

Each of the tax years in the four year period ended April 30, 2017, and since inception for the Government Master Fund and the Prime CNAV Master Fund, remains subject to examination by the Internal Revenue Service and state taxing authorities.

Report of independent registered public accounting firm

To the Interest holders and Board of Trustees of Master Trust

We have audited the accompanying statements of assets and liabilities, including the portfolios of investments, of Prime Master Fund, Government Master Fund, Treasury Master Fund, Prime CNAV Master Fund and Tax-Free Master Fund (the five series constituting Master Trust (the "Trust")) as of April 30, 2017, and the related statements of operations, the statements of changes in net assets, and the financial highlights for the periods indicated therein. These financial statements and financial highlights are the responsibility of the Trust's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements and financial highlights based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements and financial highlights are free of material misstatement. We were not engaged to perform an audit of the Trust's internal control over financial reporting. Our audits included consideration of internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Trust's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements and financial highlights, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, and evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. Our procedures included confirmation of securities owned as of April 30, 2017 by correspondence with the custodian and others. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements and financial highlights referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Prime Master Fund, Government Master Fund, Treasury Master Fund, Prime CNAV Master Fund and Tax-Free Master Fund at April 30, 2017, the results of their operations, the changes in their net assets and the financial highlights for each of the periods indicated therein, in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles.
