¹ The information provided is for non-sweep funds.

² Gates refer to the temporary suspension of redemptions. Fees refer to the possible imposition of fund redemption fees under certain circumstances.

⁴ FNAV refers to floating net asset value per share. CNAV refers to a fund seeking a constant net asset value per share.

⁵ Sweep funds refers to a money market fund that is available via UBS Financial Services' automatic cash sweep platform, where free cash balances of the client's brokerage account are regularly swept into the fund.

⁶ These funds have limited availability and are offered to investors satisfying criteria described in each fund's prospectus (e.g. "marketing relationship" assets of $25 million or more; participation in certain advisory programs).

Investors should consider the investment objectives, risks, charges and expenses of a mutual fund carefully before investing. The money market funds' prospectuses contain this and other information about the funds and should be read carefully before investing. Contact the UBS Asset Management National Sales Desk at 888-793 8637, or visit www.ubs.com/usmoneymarketfunds for a current prospectus.

You could lose money by investing in a money market fund. Although a money market fund seeks to preserve the value of your investment at $1.00 per share, a fund cannot guarantee it will do so. An investment in a money market fund is not insured or guaranteed by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or any other government agency. A money market fund's sponsor has no legal obligation to provide financial support to a money market fund, and you should not expect that the fund's sponsor will provide financial support to a money market fund at any time.

Not FDIC insured. May lose value. No bank guarantee.
